Bread for the City provides medical, legal and social services to DC residents living with incomes below 200% of the federal poverty line. Bread for the City also provides food, clothing, and has a representative payee program and engages in advocacy to empower DC residents.

DC VOLUNTEER
LAWYERS PROJECT

DC Volunteer Lawyers Project provides pro bono services to domestic violence victims in protection order, divorce custody, child support and immigration matters. DCVLP also represents vulnerable children as guardians at litem in custody cases.

The mission of First Shift Justice Project is to empower low-income pregnant women and parents to safeguard the economic security and health of their families by asserting their workplace rights.

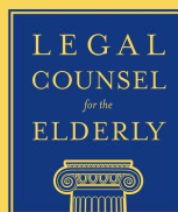

TZEDEK DC
Legal Help for People in Debt

Tzedek DC's mission is to safeguard the legal rights and financial health of DC residents with low incomes dealing with the often devastating consequences of abusive debt collection practices and other consumer related issues.

Legal Counsel for the Elderly provides free legal and social work services to D.C. residents most in need. Attorneys represent seniors in consumer, housing, public benefits, veterans benefits, Social Security, probate and estate planning cases. LCE also houses the DC Long Term Care Ombudsman, which works to resolve complaints of long-term residents in facilities and in private homes.

45TH ANNIVERSARY

1975 - 2020

DC KinCare Alliance represents relative caregivers who step up to raise DC at-risk children in times of crisis when their parents cannot care for them. Representation in custody, benefits and related cases.
