OUR RELATIVE CAREGIVER RESOURCE GUIDE

A RESOURCE GUIDE FOR RELATIVES RAISING D.C. CHILDREN:

Helping You Find the Best Path Forward

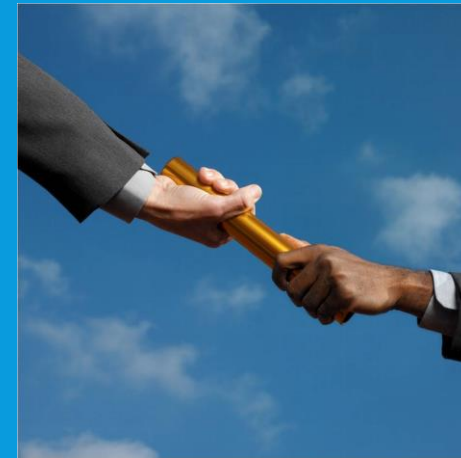

This Guide provides information about the legal options and financial resources to consider when it becomes necessary for a relative caregiver to care for a DC child

CASES FOR REFERRAL TO DC KINCARE ALLIANCE

- Third party custody cases, especially those that involve:
 - Questions on jurisdiction
 - Questions on standing
 - Complex legal issues
 - Custody is contested
 - CFSA involvement
 - Complex benefits issues

Remember: we only represent the third party; not the parent(s)*

SAMPLE CASE

- CHILD → A 5-year-old girl left alone w/o supervision
 - MOTHER → Serious mental health and substance use issues
 - FATHER → Incarcerated and never involved
 - CHILD'S MATERNAL GRANDMOTHER → CFSA is involved and asks the grandmother to take custody of the child. Grandmother wants to file for custody of the child in DC court so she can get the child medical care and enroll her in school
- Relevant Questions:
- Does DC court have jurisdiction?
 - Does the grandmother have standing to file for custody?
 - Does the grandmother need a custody order or can she get the father to sign a custodial power of attorney?
